BLACK CONGREGATIONAL ENHANCEMENT...

The mission of the Black Congregational Enhancement office is to empower the health, vitality, and growth of African American congregations and to assist the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) in its efforts to be racially just, culturally plural, and spiritually vibrant.

The African American Advisory Committee provides guidance to the mission of the office in evangelism and church growth, and implementation of the Racial Ethnic/Immigrant Evangelism and Church Growth Strategy.

1. Mission Program Grants

Mission Program Grants in partnership with synods and presbyteries provides short-term, start-up funds for New Church Development, Congregational Transformation and Specialized Ministries. Grants are normally made for between three to seven years. Mission Program Grants are for projects that reflect the denomination's commitment to inclusiveness and diversity and respond to the mission priorities and strategies of the presbytery, synod and General Assembly. Below is a listing of the grants provided.

<http://www.pcusa.org/missionprogramgrants/>

- Exploration and Feasibility Grant:
Provides funding necessary to conduct a study to determine the viability of successfully establishing a new congregation or transforming (redeveloping) an existing congregation.
- New Congregation Grant:
For the establishment and eventual charter of a new congregation or an existing church willing to start, charter and attach an emerging generation group to their current facility.
- Existing Congregation Grant:

- Specialized Ministry Grant:
For a ministry sponsored by the presbytery, a group of congregations or a congregation to meet the physical, social, spiritual or justice/evangelism needs of the community outside of the congregation(s).
- The Sam and Helen R. Walton Award
In late December 1991, Sam and Helen R. Walton made a generous gift through the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)
